

WEST COVINA CHAMBER

Quarter 3 Recap

A Message from West Covina Chamber President

Dear West Covina Chamber,

I am thrilled to welcome you to the first ever edition of the West Covina Chamber newsletter! This marks an exciting new chapter in our commitment to keeping you informed and engaged with the vibrant happenings in our community.

As we reflect on the events and initiatives that have unfolded so far this year, it's clear that our spirit of collaboration and connection is stronger than ever. From our successful first ever Chamber mixer to the informative workshops, your participation has made a remarkable impact. We've seen local businesses thrive, residents come together, and new partnerships form that strengthen our community fabric.

We encourage you to take part in our future activities, whether it's networking events, workshops, or community service projects. Together, we can continue to foster growth and create a supportive environment for all.

Thank you for your ongoing support and enthusiasm.
